Dear [REDACTED]

The United States Military Academy cordially invites you to join us for the 30th Annual Student Conference on United States Affairs (SCUSA) as a co-chairperson of the round table on East-West Relations: China. Your expertise and professional experience in this field would contribute greatly to the conference and benefit the student delegates interested in that area of American foreign policy.

The theme of this year's conference is "The Advanced Industrialized World in American Foreign Policy" focusing on three major issue-areas facing the United States today and involving advanced industrialized nations in the conduct of U.S. policy. These issue-areas are East-West, North-South, and First World relations. The SCUSA Background Pamphlet sent under separate cover will more fully explain the Conference theme.

Should you accept this invitation, SCUSA will arrange for accommodations at the Hotel Thayer on the Academy grounds, reimburse you for your travel and provide per diem allowances to cover expenses at West Point. We ask that you complete the biographical data and travel forms at your earliest convenience so that we may print our Conference Handbook and work out any special arrangements for your travel needs. As you plan your travel, you may find the administrative information in Part II of the Background Pamphlet to be helpful.

It would be a pleasure to welcome you to West Point and I hope to see you here in November.

Sincerely,

THOMAS R. WHEELLOCK
Captain, Armor
Executive Secretary
SCUSA
